

CHRIST OF GOD MINISTRIES

When you do this process, it's about your intent and desire in your heart. You must choose to release it and not hold onto the hindrance any longer. If you follow the steps, but not repent from the heart, the Lord will see your heart's desires and know you aren't faithful in what you're asking.

The purpose of this is to start the inner healing purging process, the step in which we start to remove our binds and strongholds, the emotional ties we have created to the situation or event, break curses, spirits and witchcraft, restoring our DNA ect..

This will also build your relationship with the Holy Spirit, Jesus and the Father, as you are opening your heart to healing and thus breaking down the barriers between you and the Father and also strengthening your communication with Him.

This process will break down the legal spiritual ties and their effects over you and your family.

Imagine an onion, you may repent for one layer of corruption, however there's many more layers underneath, that need to be dealt with until you reach the core.

The Holy Spirit will do this in a gentle process, as the Father knows your heart and knows how to heal you. Stay patient and stay strong! This is not a quick fix, however it's a permanent solution. To redeem full freedom and purge your past you want to continue this process. The more time you spend purging, the more freedom you will receive.

YHWH bless you!

3 STEPS TO PURGING

Step 1. Box Process - Inner Healing

Step 2. Courts of Heaven

Step 3. Confirming your Freedom

STEP 1. BOX PROCESS

THE INNER HEALING

With anything the Lord has revealed to you, it should be taken through the box process, so any possible emotional attachments can be healed and removed, whether you are aware of the emotions or not.

Imagine yourself with God, Jesus or Holy Spirit, and imagine Him giving you an empty box. Place your situation inside the box with every memory, the trauma, the people, all feelings, all emotions, any tears, unforgiveness, bitterness, sadness, grief, hatred, anxiety, lust, anger, anything to do with this situation in your life or in your past. You may find that more memories/events may come to your mind, place them all into the box too. When you run out of things, ask Him if there is any more you need to place inside the box, wait and see if anything more comes to you, then place these inside the box too. Continue doing this process until nothing else comes up, you can always repeat it if more come to mind later, but it is important to keep asking Him to reveal them to you. Once you have done this, you can imagine closing the box up and handing it back over to Him, choosing to release everything you were holding onto.

(Optional, as this can help with additional healing)

Imagine Him giving you a gift back, open the gift, wait and receive with love what He gives you, His gift could be anything and often changes in each gift you receive back. You can also ask Him to show you where He was when this trauma/event happened in your life, this may bring you more closure.

(You can teach this to children to help them grow a closer intimate relationship with Jesus and help them overcome their issues/situations/emotions ect...

Our imagination is the bridge to the spirit realm. If you are unable to imagine receiving a gift back, that's okay, imagine something you would want to receive, as YHWH already knows what you need. Seeing/Hearing ect takes practice. Don't worry if you think you made it up, the enemy will always try to fill you with doubt, however our Father in heaven always gives His children Good Gifts!)

STEP 2. COURTS OF HEAVEN

This step acknowledges the corruption and pleads guilty to what you are purging, it also repents and renounces it, dealing with the legalities of corruption. This will release you from the binding contracts, and remove any effects it has caused in your life. As Jesus has already paid the price for all full restoration on the cross.

Pleading the blood of Jesus over your case, will pay any outstanding debts against you or your bloodline, as Jesus is our Advocate. This will remove all powers of the enemy, in regards to what you have pleaded guilty to.

Imagine yourself before God in a courtroom, you can be as creative as you like. The more you engage in the courtroom, the more the Holy Spirit will change your imagination to what it actually looks like and you may begin to see things you haven't previously seen.

Courtroom Example Prayer;

Father, I repent, renounce and plead guilty to everything I just took through the Box. I plead guilty to opening any doors willingly or unwillingly and to all sins, iniquities and transgression. I plead guilty to any witchcraft, ceremonies, rituals, covenants, contracts, oaths, bindings, ties, curses, word curses, hexes, vexes, spells, voodoo, shamanism, occultism, sorcery, magic, all negative impartation, demonic trades and exchanges, false religion, false ideology, false theology, idolatry, all negative frequencies and vibrations. Jesus I ask you to come sever all soul ties and anything else I haven't mentioned. I ask you Jesus to close all doors to the demonic. I paint the blood over my body, soul, spirit and all of my gates for me and my bloodline. I plead the blood of Jesus over this case. Thank you Father.

(Optional - Rebuking Spirits)

Example Prayer, we recommend speaking out loud.

I command every spirit that has no legal tie, bindings, contract to leave me and my bloodline in Jesus' name. I command all spirits to go to the abyss and never return. Thank you Father, Amen!

You may feel a reaction of burping, coughing, yawning, this is normal, and you also may feel nothing, this is also normal. Every believer experiences healing and deliverance differently.

STEP 3. CONFIRMING YOUR FREEDOM

After you have purged this, sit and ask the Holy Spirit if this is complete. Wait patiently for a response and if He says no, or you feel it's not complete, ask Him what else there is to purge in regards to this until He confirms it's complete. He sometimes may confirm through dreams or other means. This could take an hour or a month to finalize, everyone's situation is different and the time to complete it will always vary for each person and for every situation you are purging.

If you are not receiving from the Holy Spirit or not finding freedom, it's not complete. Continue seeking the Holy Spirit for more information on what may be required in purging. Alternatively you can contact COGM for more guidance www.christofgodministries.com.au

Once you are comfortable with the steps, you can take multiple things through the box, and then take them all through the Courts of Heaven at once. Example; you could put 50 things in the box individually, and then take the 50 things through the Courts in one bulk prayer, so you only have to do the Courts prayer once for the 50 items.

If you would like more help contact us
<https://www.christofgodministries.com.au/>

Love and Blessings
Christ of God Ministries

