I dwell in the secret place of the Most High God and abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress; my God and in Him do I trust. He delivers me from the snare of the fowler and from the perilous pestilence. He covers me with His feathers and under his wings I do take refuge. His truth is my shield and buckler. I am not afraid of the terror by night, or of the arrow that flies by day, nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness, nor of the destruction that lays waste at noonday. A thousand may fall at my side and ten thousand at my right hand but it shall not come near me. With my eyes I shall look and see the reward of the wicked. Because I have made the Lord, who is my refuge, even the Most High God, my habitation no evil shall befall me nor any plague come near my dwelling; for He gives His angels charge over me to keep me in all my ways. They bear me up in their hands lest I dash my foot against a stone. I tread upon the lion and the cobra, the young lion and the serpent. I trample under-foot. I trample Satan and all his demonic forces under my feet. I have set my love upon God and He delivers me. He sets me on high because I have known His name. I call upon God and He answers me. He is with me in trouble; He delivers me and honors me. With long life He satisfies me and shows me His salvation. (Ps. 91)

The produce of my ground and the increase of my herds, the increase of my cattle and the offspring of my flocks are blessed. My basket and my store are blessed. I am blessed when I come in and I am blessed when I go out. The Lord causes my enemies who rise against me to be defeated before my face; they shall come against me one way and flee before me seven ways. The Lord commands the blessing on me in my storehouses and in all to which I set my hand and He blesses me in the inheritance, which the Lord has given me in Christ. The Lord establishes me a holy person to Himself just as He has sworn to me as I keep the commandments of the Lord my God and walk in His ways, all people of the earth see that I am called by the name of the Lord and the fear of the Lord is on them. The Lord grants me plenty of goods, in the fruit of my body, in the increase of my livestock and in the produce of my ground in the inheritance, which the Lord has given me in Christ. The Lord opens to me His good treasure, the heavens, to give rain to my land in its season, and to bless all the work of my hand. I lend to others but I shall never need to borrow at all. The Lord makes me the head and not the tail. I am above only and not beneath for I heed the commandments of the Lord my God which He commands me and I am careful to observe them. I will not turn aside from any of the words, which God commands me, to the right hand or to the left, nor go after other gods to serve them. I only obey the Lord's commandments.
